Sermon series “New Rhythms” | Through April 4

Our Lenten series will focus on spiritual rhythms that can help us become more fully devoted followers of Jesus. A rhythm of fasting abstains from our regular routines so we can be more attentive to God. A rhythm of prayer enables us to walk in daily intimacy with God. A rhythm of sabbath slows us down and connects us to God's people in worship. A rhythm of solitude attunes our souls to hear from God. And a rhythm of gratitude presents our lives as thankful offerings to God. Previous sermons are available anytime at GlenkirkChurch.org/sermons.
